Any additional requests to make your day extra special:

This is to be considered a legal and binding contract for services by Pro Dry.

A 50% deposit is required on all of the above appointments at the time they are made. This deposit, or any portion of it, will not be refunded in the event that any or all of the above appointments are cancelled or a member of your party does not keep their appointment.

Reservations for the above appointments are subject to availability. We reserve the right to schedule the time for the above requests with certain artists at our discretion.

In the event that an artist is sick, unavailable, etc., the reservations for the above requests will be changed as necessary with little or no advance notice in our best attempt to accommodate you.

It is our policy that one single payment of the balance is due on the date of the wedding. Thank you in advance for understanding.

We also suggest that the bride and any member of your wedding party schedule a trial updo appointment two to three weeks prior to the wedding date. If you cannot schedule a trial updo, please feel free to bring any photos or ideas of what your desired look will be. This will help the artists to stay on schedule for your special day.

Thanks again for choosing Pro Dry to fulfil all of your wedding style needs!!
